Jahagir. The SS who was Consulted in the matter, was of opinion that under the Doctor was a Government officer and like the Jamildar or the police inspector, the power to hold P. M. examinations could not be conceded. The Jagirdar was Consulted, but did not agree to the arrangement. The old arrangement was thereupon ordered to be Continued

5 Now that the Govt has been kept by the Court, there seems to be no difficulty to empower him to conduct P. M. examinations. As for places where even the Courts give Dno in Professional matters, the Jahagirdar has to be Consulted. This will be done if approved
